Mali

Des attaques simultanées, hier à la roquette contre 3 camps des forces internationales, font des dégâts mais pas de victime

Trois bases de l'armée française dans le nord et l'est du Mali ont été, lundi 30 novembre 2020 dans la matinée en l'espace de quelques heures, la cible d'attaques qui n'ont fait aucune victime, a annoncé un porte-parole de l'opération Barkhane.

L'Insécurité dans le cercle d'Ansongo (région de gao) exacerbée par les affrontements entre le GSIM et l'EIGS

Le cercle d'Ansongo, dans la région de Gao, est en passe de devenir une poudrière permanente. Outre les actes d'insécurité allant des braquages aux enlèvements de personnes moyennant le paiement d'une rançon pour les libérer, la situation est davantage exacerbée par les affrontements incessants....

Nigeria

The Massacre

On Saturday 28th November 2020, over 40 Zabarmari farmers were beheaded by Boko Haram insurgents. The incident appears to be one of the most gruesome execution perpetrated by the unrelenting terrorists. Touch down Maiduguri, Borno state capital; life seems peaceful and bubbly; unaware of the grave dangers that lie in nearby towns within the state.

Nigeria returns 3,000 displaced after jihadist violence

Some 3,000 people began returning to their homes and deserted farms in the northeast Nigerian state of Borno on Monday, six years after fleeing jihadist violence and despite a weekend massacre that underscored the security risks they still face. And adding to their troubles, officials there warned....

Al-Shabab's terror in Mozambique

In August the insurgents occupied the port of Mocímboa da Praia, about 100km from the natural gas extraction plant of Palma. The town was emptied of the majority of residents, and the insurgents are holding sway over its ruins. The swathe of coastal land extending from Mocímboa to Macomia in the....
