La Cour constitutionnelle dit non aux suspects de crimes de guerre

La Cour constitutionnelle de la République centrafricaine a douché les espoirs de l'ancien président François Bozizé et d'une douzaine d'autres membres de groupes armés. Leurs candidatures aux élections du 27 décembre sont invalidées. Bozizé, président de 2003 à 2013, est rattrapé par les allégations de crimes de guerre qui pèsent contre lui.

B/Haram kills 657 civilians, 592 officials in 11 months

This brings the number of people killed to 1,249. Thousands of people have been killed by the Boko Haram terrorists in the last 11 years, and like some of those that occurred this year, many killings are hardly reported by the media because of some obvious reasons.

Les Etats-Unis vont retirer l’essentiel de leur contingent en Somalie

Le désengagement se poursuit pour en finir avec les guerres sans fin. Donald Trump a ordonné le retrait de l’essentiel du contingent américain en Somalie, qui compte environ 700 hommes, a fait savoir le Pentagone, vendredi 4 décembre. Le contingent de Somalie est considéré comme la pierre angulaire de la lutte contre les djihadistes d’al-Qaïda.
